DETAILED ACTION

Specification

1. The abstract of the disclosure is objected to because it contains more than 150 words.
2. Applicant is reminded of the proper language and format for an abstract of the disclosure.

The abstract should be in narrative form and generally limited to a single paragraph on a separate sheet within the range of 50 to 150 words. It is important that the abstract not exceed 150 words in length since the space provided for the abstract on the computer tape used by the printer is limited. The form and legal phraseology often used in patent claims, such as "means" and "said," should be avoided. The abstract should describe the disclosure sufficiently to assist readers in deciding whether there is a need for consulting the full patent text for details.

The language should be clear and concise and should not repeat information given in the title. It should avoid using phrases which can be implied, such as, "The disclosure concerns," "The disclosure defined by this invention," "The disclosure describes," etc.

Double Patenting

3. A rejection based on double patenting of the "same invention" type finds its support in the language of 35 U.S.C. 101 which states that "whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process ... may obtain a patent therefor ..." (Emphasis added). Thus, the term "same invention," in this context, means an invention drawn to identical subject matter. See Miller v. Eagle Mfg. Co., 151 U.S. 186 (1894); In re Ockert, 245 F.2d 467, 114 USPQ 330 (CCPA 1957); and In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970).

A statutory type (35 U.S.C. 101) double patenting rejection can be overcome by canceling or amending the conflicting claims so they are no longer coextensive in scope. The filing of a terminal disclaimer cannot overcome a double patenting rejection based upon 35 U.S.C. 101.

4. Claims 9-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 as claiming the same invention as that of claims 1, 4, 2, and 3 (respectively) of U.S. Patent No. 6, 233, 562. This is a double patenting rejection. Despite a slight difference in the wording such as, using "storing" instead of "retaining", "switching" instead of "replacing", claims 9-12 of the current application and claims 1, 4, 2, and 3 of U.S. 6, 233, 562 are identical.

5. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

6. Claim 24 is rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claim 1 of U.S. Patent No. 6, 233, 562. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because all the features recited in claim 24 of the present application are disclosed in claim 1 of U.S. Patent No. 6, 233, 562 despite a slight difference in the wording such as using "storing" instead of "retaining", "switching" instead of "replacing", and using "at least one channel" instead of "m channels" where $m < n$ and $n > 1$, because setting $n=2$ and $m=1$ reads on the conflicting claims.

Claim Rejections

7. Claims 13-23, and 25-37 objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

8. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Han et al. (U.S 5,812,979) teach a synthesis filter for an MPEG-2 audio decoder with a first, second, and third queue memory. Moon (U.S 5,877,817) teaches a digital satellite broadcast receiver having a simultaneous multi-channel search function and a memory system with a plurality of sections. Ashby, III et al. (U.S 5,150,401) teach a communication system wherein the interface unit contains a voice coder and a voice decoder which are of the sub-band type. Gao et al. (U.S 5,832,445) teach a method and apparatus for the decoding of the digital audio data encoded in accordance with layer 1 or 2. Ku et al. (U.S 5,719,998) teach the decompression of MPEG compressed audio data wherein the audio decoder engine includes a data path, instruction set, registers and internal program and data memory.
